2. Other: I attended the JC course with Ellen McDermott a couple of years ago. We are implementing JC across our organization. I participated in both the HRO and RCA courses when they were offered locally. I appreciate that they build upon each other. Work to ensure that connection is deliberate and obvious in the materials. Perhaps more important if you take more than one; there were places where I had to make this connection myself (not a bad thing necessarily) but obvious deliberate integration of the three in the material would be awesome as well! Was in the first RCA course, so may have been done
